

PREFACE AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The peace of the Lord be with you. We continue to thank God for ushering us into a New Year. The Presbyterian Church of Ghana took some major decisions in 2019. Two of these decisions are the new method of mobilizing funds and Vision 1.5. These decisions call for prayers by the entire Church for their realization and implementation. Part of the strategies for the Vision 1.5 is requesting every member of the Presbyterian Church of Ghana to pray for at least a minute every day for soul-winning and church growth.

I read a beautiful piece on prayer in the 2018 edition of Our Daily Bread, a devotional material. I am paraphrasing part of the write up for our reflection.

Prayer is an action which gives God the priority He deserves. Prayer must permeate our actions by being a continual part of them as we consciously live in God's presence. We are easily distracted, and we must fight to keep this perspective continually. It is not just a matter of making time for God; it is the realization that all of our time is in His hands and that we are constantly before Him where we are and whatever we do. This is what it means to live day by day in a relationship with Him, and this realization with Him and this realization help us pray increasingly without ceasing.

Learning to give prayer a priority takes time. It hardly happens immediately because we are already rooted in self-reliance, old habits. We have to do away with old habits and patterns of thoughts. God desires us to be prayerful people of action: people who pray first then act in response to His leading. All of us have varying stages of keeping the balance. Sometimes we tell ourselves “I am not much a praying person.” But because Jesus was a praying person, you and I are intended to be like Him.

Prayer and action are two sides of the same coin of a mature and Christ-like faith. We can't have one without the other. Action without prayer, even if it's done for God, too often misses the mark.

Once again, I wish to remind users that, The Prayer Bulletin, as we all know is a guide. It is designed to cater for the individual petition as well as interceding for others. It is to encourage members of the Presbyterian Church of Ghana to pray for themselves and also for others. It must be stated that this material does not debar members and Congregations from praying on other issues. When we pray for people, we focus our thoughts on them. We take the burdens of people we pray for upon ourselves. We also sacrifice our time for people we intercede for. Most importantly, we demonstrate true love and compassion for them. Prayer of intercessory should, therefore, be considered equally important as our petitions. I, therefore, urged you all to continue to intercede for the nation, the Church universal (and particularly for the Presbyterian Church of Ghana), and many others.

The prayer points in this edition were prepared by the following:

Rev. K. L. M. Ansah – January and April

Rev. William Akotua Opare – February and May

Rev. Lawrence Tete – March and June

The Department of Mission and Evangelism is grateful to them for making time to raise the prayer points without demanding any financial compensation. It is my prayer that we continue to use the Prayer Bulletin to enhance our prayer lives. God bless you.

Rev. Felix Akresu-Anim Danso

Director, Mission & Evangelism

PRAYER FOR OUR CHILDREN

“Arise, cry out in the night, as the watches of the night begin; pour out your heart like water in the presence of the Lord. Lift your hands to him for the lives of your children, who faint from hunger at every street corner.” (Lamentations 2:19)

1. KNOWLEDGE OF JESUS AT AN EARLY AGE

Father, draw my children closer to Jesus Christ from an early age and cause them to seek Him. In the eighth year of Josiah's reign, while he was still young, he began to seek the God of his father David (2 King 22:3-7).

2. HATRED FOR SIN

Lord place in my children a hatred for sin. “Let those who love the Lord hate evil, for he guards the lives of his faithful ones and delivers them from the hand of the wicked.” (Psalms 97:10)

3. PROTECTION FROM THE ENEMY

LORD protect my children from the enemy. “My prayer is not that you take them out of the world but that you protect them from the evil one.” (John 17:15)

4. HEDGE OF PROTECTION

LORD, place a hedge of protection around them so that no evil will befall them. “Therefore I will block her path with thorn-bushes; I will wall her in so that she cannot find her way.” (Hosea 2:6); “It is God who arms me with strength and keeps my way secure. (2 Samuel 22:33)

5. ANGELIC PROTECTION

Thank You, Father, for Your angels that protect and keep them. "For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways; they will lift you in their hands so that you will not strike your foot against a stone."(Psalms 91:11-12)

6. RESPECT FOR THOSE IN AUTHORITY

LORD, help my children to respect those in authority. “Submission to Governing Authorities. Let everyone be subject to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except that which God has established. The authorities that exist have been established by God.” (Romans 13:1)

7. HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS

Father in Heaven, please lead my children to healthy relationships and friendships, and protect them from the wrong ones. “My son, if sinful men entice you, do not give in to them. If they say, “Come along with us; let’s lie in wait for innocent blood, let’s ambush some harmless soul” (Proverbs 1:10-11); “My son, do not go along with them, do not set foot on their paths” (Proverbs 1:15).

8. A RESPONSIBLE AND EXCELLENT SPIRIT

Lord Jesus Christ, please help my children to be responsible in all their relationships. Place in them an excellent spirit. “Now Daniel so distinguished himself among the administrators and the satraps by his exceptional qualities that the king planned to set him over the whole kingdom.” (Daniel 6:3)

9. SUBMISSION TO GOD

LORD JESUS, help them to completely submit themselves to YOU and to resist Satan.

“Submit yourselves, then, to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.” (James 4:7)

10. GOD’S CHOICE FOR A SPOUSE

Protect them, Lord, from the wrong companions, and help them to wait for right companion YOU have predestined for them.

“Do not be yoked together with unbelievers. For what do righteousness and wickedness have in common? Or what does a believer have in common with an unbeliever? What agreement is there between the temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God. As God has said: “I will live with them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they will be my people.” Therefore, “Come out from them and be separate, says the Lord. Touch no unclean thing, and I will receive you.” (2 Corinthians 6:14-17)

11. SEXUAL PURITY

Father, help them, as well as their future spouse, to stay pure until marriage.

“Flee from sexual immorality. All other sins a person commits are outside the body, but whoever sins sexually, sins against their own body. Do you not know that your bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore honor God with your bodies.”(1 Corinthians 6:18-20)
